

H. Res. 343

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

February 23, 1994.

Whereas the United States House of Representatives strongly opposes racism, anti-Catholicism, anti-Semitism, and all forms of ethnic or religious intolerance;

Whereas the racist, anti-Catholic, and anti-Semitic speech given by Khalid Abdul Muhammad of the Nation of Islam at Kean College on November 29, 1993, incites divisiveness and violence on the basis of race, religion, and ethnicity; and

Whereas Mr. Muhammad specifically justifies the slaughter of Jews during the Holocaust as fully deserved; disparages the Pope in the most revolting personal terms; and calls for the assassination of every white infant, child, man, and woman in South Africa: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2               (1) condemns the speech given by Khalid Abdul
3       Muhammad as outrageous hatemongering of the 4       most vicious and vile kind; and

- 1           (2) condemns all manifestations and expres-
- 2           sions of racism, anti-Catholicism, anti-Semitism, and
- 3           ethnic or religious intolerance.

Attest:

Clerk.
